

Forgotten Landscapes Partnership Newsletter

Issue 5 - May 2012

Welcome to the May edition of the Forgotten Landscapes e-newsletter! Keep up-to-date with the latest project news plus information on events and activities with this monthly bulletin.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Our new community courses have just begun (there are one or two spaces still available so please contact us if you're interested). We're now turning our attention to the Forgotten Landscapes Summer School, which will be run in conjunction with the University of Wales Newport. Between 21st – 26th May there will be a packed programme of walks, talks and workshops on everything from habitat surveying, to archaeology to landscape photography. All are welcome. Visit www.visitblaenavon.co.uk for more details.

HYDRO-THERAPY

Coity tip has been given a helping hand on the road to recovery using a modern technique called hydroseeding. Read the full Hydro-therapy article.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY JUNIOR RANGERS

The Blaenavon World Heritage Site Junior Rangers club has reached its first birthday. Over the past year its members have learnt bushcraft skills, hunted for minibeasts and helped out with conservation tasks, amongst many other things. New members are always welcome. Visit www.visitblaenavon.co.uk for more information.
