

APRIL 2012 NEWSLETTER

Forgotten Landscapes Partnership Newsletter

Issue 4 - April 2012

Welcome to the April edition of the Forgotten Landscapes e-newsletter! Keep up-to-date with the latest project news plus information on events and activities with this monthly bulletin.

UNESCO YOUTH SUMMIT

Five students from Abersychan School have won a competition to represent Blaenavon World Heritage Site at this summer's UNESCO Youth Summit. The winning group will travel to London to meet young people from around the UK and will also get a fantastic opportunity to explore heritage sites in the capital.

FIGHTING ILLEGAL OFF-ROAD BIKING

The area surrounding Twmbarlwm Mountain has suffered extensive damage from illegal off-road biking over the past few decades. Find out what PC Rob Maddocks from the FLP has been doing to help. Read the full Fighting Illegal Off-Road Biking article.

REMEMBERED LANDSCAPES

In a workshop, led by Chris Morgan from Glamorgan University, locals from Blaenavon created a series of digital stories, putting their personal mark on the history of the area. Read the full Remembered Landscapes article.

WHAT'S ON?

Bush Craft

Discover wild food in the woods and learn the fundamentals of fire making and outdoor cooking with bush craft expert Alan Cree

Sunday 29th April

Two sessions available:
10am – 12.30pm & 1.30 – 4pm

The 2012 Events Programme

The 2012 Events programme is now available. Pick up your copy at Blaenavon World Heritage Centre or contact us if you would like us to post a copy to you

For full information please visit the events section of our website or call 01495 742333

DISCOVER THE HERITAGE OF BLAENAVON

Starting in the week of 23 April, the Forgotten Landscapes will be offering free community courses on the history and environment of Blaenavon. The three different courses will be taught in either Blaenavon or Pontypool and will offer something for everyone who has an interest in the area. Booking is essential. Read the full Discover the heritage of Blaenavon article here.

www.visitblaenavon.co.uk

© 2012 Torfaen County Borough Council. All Rights Reserved.